☆☆ HIGH SCHOOL ☆☆
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Dedication

Because we count him an inspiring leader, a kindly adviser, and a true friend, we, the Class of 1943, deem it an honor to dedicate this issue of The Monticello to our principal, Coulter C. Hancock.

Foreword...

WE ARE AT WAR, FIGHTING TO THE BEST OF OUR ABILITY TO PRESERVE THE IDEALS THAT THOMAS JEFFERSON AND HIS CONTEMPORARIES ESTABLISHED A HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS AGO. ☆ THE STUDENTS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL WHICH BEARS JEFFERSON'S NAME ARE WORKING AND STRIVING SO THAT HIS PRINCIPLES WILL NOT BE TRAMPLED BY THE FORCES OF TOTALITARIANISM. THE CHARACTERISTIC GAY COLORS IN THE HALLS HAVE BEEN SUBDUED BY THE MILITARY BLUE AND GRAY OF THE CADET CORPS. NEW WAR COURSES HAVE BEEN INSTITUTED AND OLD COURSES ADJUSTED TO NEW NEEDS. EVERY CLUB AND ORGANIZATION IS ACTIVE IN PATRIOTIC SERVICE. A VICTORY CORPS HAS BEEN ORGANIZED TO UNIFY THE EFFORTS OF THE STUDENTS. ☆ MANY OF THE BOYS HAVE ENTERED THE ARMED SERVICES OF THE NATION. THE REST OF US ARE DOING OUR PART AS BEST WE CAN THAT THOSE REPRESENTED BY THE GOLD STARS ON OUR SERVICE FLAG SHALL NOT HAVE DIED IN VAIN. ☆ THE THOMAS JEFFERSON WE KNEW BEFORE HAS NOW BECOME A HIGH SCHOOL AT WAR.

CLUBS

The Board of Co-Ordination

The Board of Co-ordination is a group of faculty and students representing every organization at Thomas Jefferson. The problems of the school and its various activities are discussed at its meetings. The most important work of the board this year has been to draw up a calendar, scheduling all school events.

The Senate

In Thomas Jefferson, as in the United States government, the Senate is the highest governing body. It is composed of the S. P. officers and other senators elected by the three classes. Its members serve as chairmen of the various committees and hold regular meetings to decide the best school policies.

House of Representatives

The House of Representatives is composed of one member from each homeroom and two cadet representatives. Each member's duty is to report S. P. plans and objectives to the student body and to bring ideas for S. P. improvement to the House. This year its prime objective has been the selling of War Savings stamps.

The Cafeteria Committee, under the sponsorship of Miss Lila Crenshaw, is divided into two groups, the hosts and hostesses. Their primary duty is to keep order in the cafeteria and to make this part of the student's day more pleasant and enjoyable in every way.

The Cafeteria Committee

Each division of the committee is sub-divided into hosts and hostesses, captains, and executive chairmen. The executive chairmen serve the whole recess, while the captains and hosts and hostesses serve only half of it. The whole committee is under the guidance of the general chairmen.

The Cafeteria Committee

The members of the committee give up part of their recess one week in every three in an effort to make the cafeteria more attractive. They pick up trash, replace benches, carry neglected trays to the front, and remind the girls that the table is no place to put on make-up.

Recreation Hall Committee

The recreation hall is used to accommodate students during recess, especially those who bring lunch from home. To keep order and prevent overcrowding, which leads to disorder, the committee is on duty every minute of every recess. The cooperation of the student body has led to pleasant, well-ordered recess periods.

Honor Study Chairmen and War Activities Committee

The Honor Study Chairmen, who preside over the Honor Studies, check absentees, issue library slips, and see that the students keep their Honor Study pledge.

The War Activities Committee, uniting all the war work of the school under a single head, has supervised stamp sales and war drives.

Usher and Traffic Committees

The Usher Committee has carried on its regular duties during assembly and school programs. Outside activities have given way to our all-out war effort, but the committee always stands ready to render service.

Members of the Traffic Committee are stationed near the steps between periods to direct traffic and keep general order.

National Honor Society

The Thomas Jefferson Chapter of the National Honor Society is composed of seniors selected for outstanding character, leadership, service, and scholarship. Their activities this year consisted of coaching, sponsoring Sophomore home rooms, and aiding the war effort by selling stamps and giving a "War Stomp" (tea dance) at which a war stamp was the admission.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is the honorary society for students who have done outstanding work on school publications. The initiation is one of the most beautiful ceremonies of the year. This year's members revised the by-laws, sold war stamps, and hanged Hitler in a penny drive for the U. S. O.

The Science Club

The Science Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Helen Harlan, is a member of the "Science Clubs of America" federation. Its purpose is to foster an active interest in all phases of science. The programs include speakers on scientific subjects and trips to various places of scientific interest.

Thomas Jefferson Forum

The Thomas Jefferson Forum, composed of students who agree that keeping up with the news is both profitable and enjoyable, emphasized this year the study of post-war problems and gave an assembly program on this subject. Several visiting speakers were presented, whose talks were invariably followed by heated debates among the members.

El Club Espanol

El Club Espanol is formed of those students who are interested in Spanish. A student need not be taking Spanish to be a member. At the meetings, programs are given which will enable the student to understand the Spanish language more easily and to become better acquainted with it.

El Club Espanol

Interest in Latin America has increased in the past few years with the development of the Good Neighbor Policy. As a result more students have been taking Spanish, and the membership of the Spanish Club has grown.

The French Clubs

This year La Petite Academie Francaise has made puppets for a play in French. It has been conducting its meetings in French exclusively, thus putting its knowledge into practice.

The Junior French Club aims to increase interest in the language and customs of the French nation and thus create a deeper understanding of the people.

The Latin Club

Quirites, the Latin Club, met bi-weekly at the sixth period under the guidance of Miss Kratz. They tried to enjoy themselves in a Roman manner by various games, especially ones employing Latin words, and to learn more of Roman customs through talks by the members. Refreshments were sometimes served.

The Commercial Club

The Commercial Club during the 1942 fall term worked actively toward victory. Members contributed forty-four hours to the Office of Civilian Defense, where they did typing and other office work. This project was continued during the spring term. Club recreation included a Christmas party, a reception for new members, and a picnic.

Jeff Cleff Club

With Miss Wedmore as sponsor the Jeff Cleff Club again organized to help stimulate the love of good music. Although music by American composers predominated, several programs were given of music by foreign composers. Outstanding was the performance of the andante movement of the Seventh Concerto by Charles De Beriat, played by Donald Wendt, violinist.

This organization of forty girls is a branch of the Glee Club, who sing in three and four part harmony, giving concerts for the school and appearing frequently on community programs.

This year patriotic services have been stressed. Two concerts were given for the Red Cross and two during Pan-American Week.

Hi-Y Chapter I

To express their interest in the war effort this year Chapter I joined the Victory Corps as a unit. They conducted a scrap metal drive and also gave money to the Red Cross for the soldiers' hospitals. Social highlights of the year were the sponsoring of two dances.

Hi-Y Chapter II

This chapter of Hi-Y was particularly hard hit by the draft and the wave of volunteering that swept the school. In fact, so many of the boys left to go into the Armed Forces that the chapter had to disband.

Hi-Y Chapter III

This year Hi-Y Chapter III has sent boys weekly to Christ Episcopal Church, where they helped underprivileged children get recreation. They sent some boys to Emporia for the conference. This chapter has had several private dances. Also they joined the Victory Corps as a special unit.

Girl Reserves—Triangle I

The Senior Girl Reserves have centered most of their activities around present day conditions. Besides the usual social programs they have done knitting and sewing for the Red Cross. At their meetings they have discussed their responsibility in the world today and had interesting speakers on this subject.

Girl Reserves—Triangle II

This year Triangle II of the Girl Reserves has participated in the all out war effort. By hemming bandages and knitting socks and sweaters for the Red Cross, and selling War Stamps at various places, they have tried to do their share.

Girl Reserves—Triangle II

At several meetings Triangle II has been privileged to have very interesting speakers. Among them were the youth consultant from a downtown store and an ensign of the Waves. In co-operation with the other triangles, the group participated in ceremonies and the annual dance.

Girl Reserves—Triangle III

The Sophomore Triangle of the Girl Reserves, under the sponsorship of Miss Marion Smethie, has made its contribution to the war effort. Every Saturday the service chairman has sent girls to the British War Relief. The Triangle has knitted sweaters and an afghan for the Red Cross, hemmed triangles, and made cushion covers.

Student Library Assistants' Club

Any student who is a junior or senior, passes all subjects, and has a study period every day may be a member. The club meets once a week during home room period. Their duties are checking out and returning books, filing cards, shelving books, and assisting the librarians in any other way possible.

The Red Cross Council

The Red Cross Council consists of a group of students who work with three or four representatives and help them by making talks in their home rooms concerning the different drives. In these talks they stress the need and help that can come from their contributions.

Junior Red Cross Representatives

The Junior Red Cross has one representative from each home room, who explains the different drives and their purpose to his group. This year the Red Cross membership drive, the filling of boxes for British orphans, and a drive for magazines and books for the U. S. O. and camps were especially emphasized.

Jeffersonian Literary Staff

Under the editorship of Ben Johnston, the Jeffersonian received Medalist award in 1,500 to 2,500 pupil class among senior high schools at the annual convention of Columbia Scholastic Press Association in New York. It also received a special wartime award for playing an outstanding part in contributing to the nation's morale.

Jeffersonian Lieutenants

These are the staff members who must display persuasiveness and persistence in the homerooms where they keep the main line of circulation for the Jeffersonian steadfast. On regular days they solicit each student, and, having gained his nickel, keep an orderly account of subscriptions and distribute the papers on their arrival.

The Declaration

The theme of the Declaration this year has been war. Essays on the Four Freedoms, stories with navy, army, or air corps plots, and poems on war themes have made up the material of the magazine almost exclusively.

The Orchestra

Under the direction of Mr. Frank Wendt, the Thomas Jefferson Orchestra has provided outstanding entertainment to student assemblies for many years. This year especially, since the student body has been under the strain of wartime life, the programs presented by the orchestra have been valuable for diversion and relaxation. The National Anthem has become more a part of Tee-Jay life through the stirring leadership of the orchestra.

RIFLE TEAM

Marksmanship and the general care and use of the rifle as an arm for both offense and defense is a "must" in the armed forces. The soldier's best friend is his rifle. Marines carry theirs from post to post. Baths in combat areas may be few, clothes may become filthy, but the soldier's rifle stays clean and ready for instant use. Marksmanship is a part of the training of cadets, those most proficient forming the Corps rifle team. The team this year was entered in the National William Randolph Hearst Trophy Matches, a high goal for a new organization. Ammunition is furnished through the National Rifle Association, of which the Corps is a member. We'll dare the enemy to show himself to one of these riflemen!

HONOR COURT

Cadets of the United States Military Academy at West Point are justly proud of their motto, "Duty, Honor, Country." To the cadet, Honor is a way of life, the better way to accomplish one's purposes. As always, however, in any large flock, there are generally a few black sheep, and these must be kept under constant watch. This is the duty of the Honor Court. Established as a military court, it investigates all charges before trial, and hears all evidence before a decision is made. The decision of the honor court is never reversed by the administration even though the decision may cause the discharge without honor of the cadet in question. To Thomas Jefferson Cadets, Honor is the foundation upon which Courage, Conviction, and Consecration are built. The Honor Court is the rock upon which the foundation is laid.

THANKSGIVING BALL

All military life is not necessarily "one, two, three, four . . . one, two, three, four." Sometimes it becomes "one, two, and three . . . one, two and three." Social life plays an important part in what is known as "Corps Spirit" and "Company Spirit." Company parties and outings are encouraged, and Corps activities planned for the entire Regiment. The first was the beautiful Thanksgiving Ball, with turkey as the theme everywhere. Even the dance cards were decorated with a cadet-uniformed gobbler, drawn for the Corps by Foxo Reardon. The figure was composed of 40 couples, led by Cadet First Captain Tommy Haddon and Cadet Senior Captain George Weitzel, with Misses Jean White and Jane Lee Burton, respectively. Dancing after the figure was card style and break, and the highlight of the entire Ball came when the new Corps Song, "Teejay High Cadets," was introduced by Burt Repine's Orchestra. Miss Carlease Samuels, who wrote the song, and Miss Evelyn Wood, military department secretary for the first semester, were both presented with commissions as Honorary Captain. All in all it was Teejay's most gala occasion, a prevue of many wonderful military balls to come.

TEEJAY KEYDETS

Martial music goes with every military organization . . . but so does dancing. The T-J Keydets, organized under the direction of Mr. Frank Wendt, assistant commandant and music director, has made rapid strides, until public opinion has rated it along with the best of local aggregations. Playing for practically all school organizations, the orchestra also found itself in demand for outside occasions, playing for dances of local Army stations and for Mary Washington College. When the T-J Keydets strike up with the Corps song, their theme, the air is filled with mellow notes until the last bar of the National Anthem has been played. It's another indication of the diversity to be found within the organization.

CHEER LEADERS

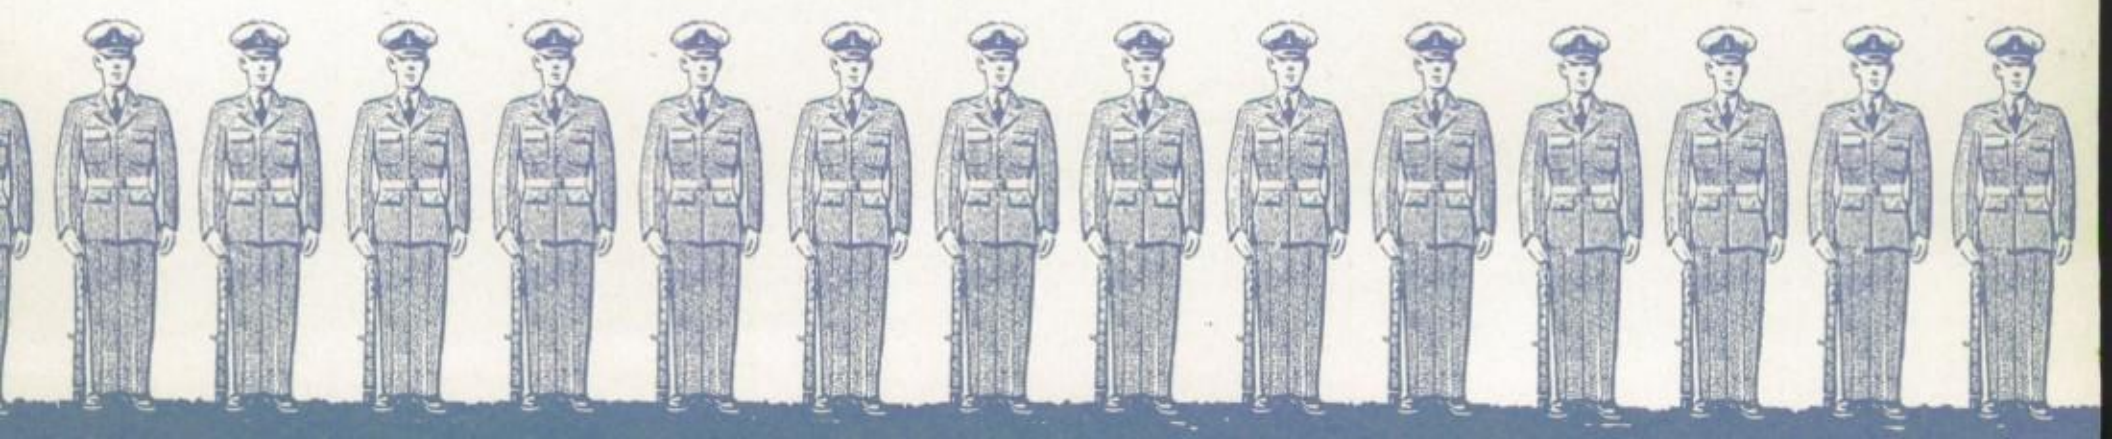
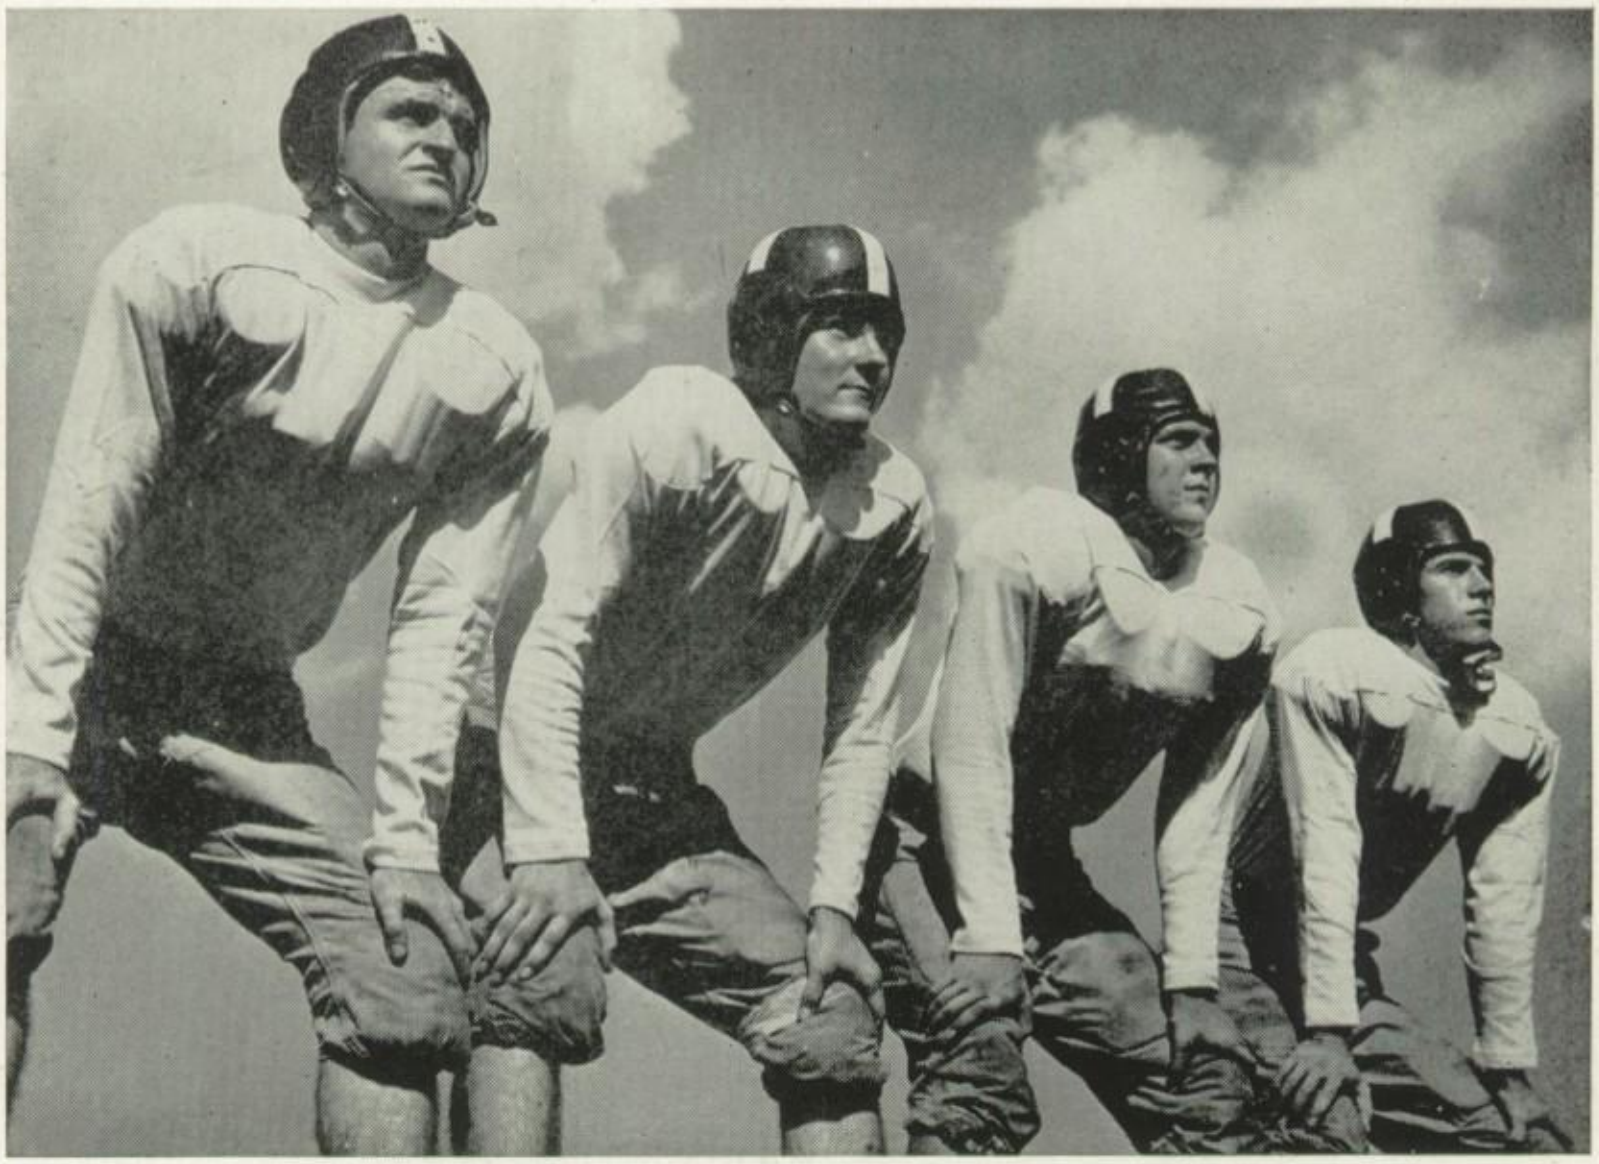
Under the sponsorship of Miss Margaret Baker, these lads and lassies in their colorful costumes of red and white symbolize Tee-Jay's school spirit. By stimulating their morale, the cheer leaders helped the football team through a difficult season. Aroused by their cheers, the basketball team strove for victory, being defeated only in the final game. In addition, the cheer leaders aroused enthusiasm at the pep rallies held before each football game.





TEE-JAY BACKFIELD

FOOTBALL, 1943

Tee-Jay's new football coach, Shelburn Carmack, had many handicaps in molding the 1942 gridiron eleven. Only two lettermen, Albert Currie and Donald Ford, returned from last year's strong varsity. The rest were inexperienced, with only a B-Squad or even Junior team background. But in all their games, the Jeffs never showed a lack of fight.

By rolling over Morrison's small farmer boys, the team gave no signs of the dark days to come. Coach Carmack used five teams in this first start, a 38-0 victory. Roy Weinstein, shifty halfback and Tee-Jay's most valuable player of the season, scored two touchdowns to lead the attack. This was the Jeffs' only win of the season, although they tied Hopewell 6-6 in the last game.

In the rain and mud, Tee-Jay failed to capitalize on several breaks and went down to defeat before a big Central High eleven in their second start. Scrappiness, alone, enabled the Presidents to hold the Washingtonians to a 12-6 decision.

CURRIE RUNS BACK PUNT

Petersburg's strong team was forced to the limit in downing the hard-fighting Jeffs, 12-0. The red and white were on the defensive practically the entire game.

At Norfolk's Foreman Field, Tee-Jay played its best and most thrilling game of the season against Granby. One touchdown behind, going into the third quarter, the air-minded Jeffs started to roll. Mercer White scored first and then "Rip" Ford crossed pay dirt to make the score 14-6 in favor of the Presidents. However, two fumbles by Jeff backfield men in the latter part of the contest led to two 6-pointers for the Comets. With the score 20-14 in favor of Granby, the Jeffs tried desperately to even the count. On the last play of the game, Weinstein caught a pass from Gallion, but he was stopped dramatically by the last man between him and the goal line.

A speedy, state champion Hampton eleven rolled over the road-weary Jeffs, 25-0. The Crabbers scored early and gradually wore down the injured Presidents.

Before Tee-Jay settled down to play a hard game of football, the half ended with St. Christopher holding a 19-0 lead. Starting the second half, a sleeping end pass from Gallion to Gentil produced six points for the Jeffs. Then Coach Carmack's 1942 special with White running brought the ball deep in the Saint's territory. A reverse pass from Weinstein to Sowell made the score 19-13. But the Saints clinched the game by making a safety and a touchdown. The final score was 27-13 in favor of the Saints.

Roanoke's Magicians carried the ball up and down Tee-Jay field on around-end plays. However the Jeff's goal line stands held the visitors to a 14-0 victory.

A Lynchburg eleven, full of tricks, led the scrappy Jeffs 6-0 at halftime. In the second half, the Hilltoppers made a second touchdown. Tee-Jay's substitutes played the remainder of the contest, in which Lynchburg scored twice to win by a 25-0 score.

In the annual city classic with John Marshall the Jeffs almost pulled a major upset. The ball was in the Red and White's possession practically the whole first quarter. Spread formation plays, with Paul Jack running, carried to the Jayem one-yard line, but failed to produce a score. On the eight-yard line a pass was thrown. Ray Marshal, fleet Blue and White halfback, intercepted behind his goal line and ran 110 yards for a touchdown. In the last quarter Lane passed out in the flat to White, who ran 66 yards to score Tee-Jay's only points. The contest ended 25-7 in favor of the downtowners.

In the last game of the season, Hopewell's Blue Devils mixed good playing and lucky breaks to lead the Jeffs at half-time, 6-0. For their consistent good playing, Roy Weinstein and Albert Reidelback were placed on the All-City eleven.

BASKETBALL, 1943

Thomas Jefferson's 1943 basketball team had the most successful season since the opening of the school. They completed the regular season with 18 victories against no defeats. They made a clean sweep of the Central District, winning over John Marshall, Petersburg, and Hopewell twice each. In the playoffs for the state championship, Tee-Jay rolled over Salem, 59-33, for its 19th straight win. This was the highest score ever racked up by a Thomas Jefferson five, and it also gave the Jeffs the Western District crown. Then at Newport News, in a battle for the state title, Tee-Jay lost out in the closing minutes of the game to the strong Newport News basketeers, 33-26.

Although the Jeffs lost the final game of the season, many observers considered them the best high school quintet in the state. All members of the first five brought down high individual honors. Captain Haike Giragosian was named captain of the All-City and All-Central team selections, and won first string berth on the All-State team. Haike was also the most valuable player in the city. Dick Hungerford, tall forward, captured City, District, and State honors, besides winning the Cy Slavin foul-shooting trophy. Billy Bowers was placed on the All-City and All-Central quintets and on the second team All-State. John Stoneburner won a position on the All-Central team and made the second

All-City team. Irvin Robinson placed on the second team of the City, Central and State selections.

Although the Jeffs showed individual prowess, the greatest asset was the ability to work together well. Scoring was fairly evenly distributed among the players, with Hungerford registering highest. Even though the same five boys started and played the majority of the games, the seven reserves were very much responsible for the highly successful season. Those who earned their letters were Captain Haike Giragosian, Irvin Robinson, Billy Bowers, Dick Hungerford, John Stoneburner, Allen Andrews, Kemper Lorraine, and Eugene Delaney.

BASEBALL 1942

Coach Welton Bloxsom's varsity nine lost to only one team, but they ended the season with a record of three victories and four defeats. The strong University of Richmond Freshmen defeated the Jeffs four times. The Presidents won over St. Christopher 4-3, William and Mary Freshmen 8-5, and Westhampton 6-0. Vincent Benedetti, Teejay's captain, won the Clint S. Ford award by batting a hefty .520. Benedetti, alternating between mound and shortstop, won one game and lost two. Willie Horne, southpaw pitcher, won two and lost two, and was selected captain of the 1943 baseball team.

WILLIAMS AND DOSS BREAK THE TAPE

TRACK, 1942

With the versatile Captain Bobby McLear leading the team in every meet, the Jeff cindermen had a very successful season. Tee-Jay took second place in the Central District contest, with McLear breaking the record in the 120-yard high hurdles, and Albert Currie establishing a new javelin mark with a heave of 158 feet. McLear again set the pace when the Jeffs tied John Marshall for second place in the Tidewater track meet.

Tee-Jay won all except one dual meet, losing to Woodberry Forest by one point. In the closing meet of the season, the Jeffs defeated John Marshall 77 2-3 to 38 1-3. Charlie Phillips ran the 440 in 52 seconds to set a new school record in that event, while McLear's 32 points were high. Currie won the javelin throw for the ninth straight time. Besides McLear, other consistent point-getters during the season were Currie, Chandler, Riner, Heffner, Cousins, Boyd, Bailes, Fernandez, Smith, Stoneburner, and Massie. Chandler and Phillips were chosen co-captains for next year's harriers.

TENNIS, 1942

In a schedule of eight matches, Thomas Jefferson's 1942 racketeers broke even. The Jeffs won over John Marshall and Hopewell twice, but were beaten by St. Christopher and Petersburg. Those who earned their red tennis letters were Captain Jim Phipps, Buddy Morgan, Irvin Robinson, Billy Turner, Fred Wampler, Stanley Schoenbaum, and Vaughan Palmore. Morgan and Phipps, No. 1 and No. 2 men, won positions on the All-City team. Irvin Robinson, who won seven out of eight matches, was named captain of the 1943 team.

PHYSICAL FITNESS

One of the main programs brought in by the war is that of physical fitness. The playing of football, basketball, and other sports is voluntary, but every able boy is required to take gym classes this year. High school boys are very near draft age, and this program readies them for the armed forces. Each day rigorous exercises are taken, followed by a body-building game or several laps around the outdoor track. The boys enjoy this class and at the same time help themselves and their government by keeping physically fit.

Highlights of Hockey, 1942-1943

Direct from the wires of Tee-Jay's own press come these flashes: The Tee-Jay shincrackers ended their season with a bang! During the season the outstanding events were: Miss Mildred Brame, girls' new coach, took over. Judy Spellman and Carolyn Heiker were chosen co-captains and morale-raisers for the season. The girls piled up four wins, two losses, and two ties. The scores were as follows:

1. The Squad. 2. The Squad Grows. 3. Hit that ball. 4. Grace Jones, Manager. 5. Down the field.

Two games with Petersburg withTee-Jay on top 1-0 and 5-3; one game with Collegiate and one with R. P. I., both 2-1 in favor of Tee-Jay. The losses occurred with St. Catherine's and Westhampton College with 2-1 and 6-0 scores respectively. The outstanding game with Tee-Jay's biggest rival, Jay-Em, ended with a 2-2 tie.

Tee-Jay had the honor of being the first team to score on Richmond Club's professional players.

Fourteen lassies won letters. Ruth Puster and Frances Allen were named high scorers of the year and were placed in the All-City Tournament. Seven players plan to return for a bigger and better future.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL, 1943

Dressed in flashy new white uniforms, the Tee-Jay Girls' basketball team went down the court to add up four wins and two losses for their 1942-1943 season. Spirited by the two co-captains, Jean Knott and Mabelle Warner, the lassies displayed plenty of vim and vigor in all their encounters. To round out the year, ten outstanding starlets

Is the Seed of Success in You?

That is the question that every young man faces as the time draws near for him to enter the business world. If you are able to save money, you can succeed; if not, you will fail. You may not think so, but you will lose as sure as fate, for the seed of success is not in you. Man has two fundamental weaknesses — his inability to hang on to life as long as he desires and his inability to hang on to his material possessions. Life insurance is the only plan which is certain to offset these two fundamental weaknesses. It not only assists him to save his money but guarantees to him the safest investment and the most secure protection.

THE SPIRIT GIVETH LIFE

A picture of one's spirit may take many forms. There are thousands who would testify that its most practical expression, for a man's family, is monthly income life insurance. By this means his spirit truly "giveth life."
